Dear Mr. Terreni:

Subject: Request for FOIA Data
Ref: Progress Energy Petition No. 2004-219-E

1. Pursuant to the Administrative Procedures Act, (so-called Freedom of Information Act), please be so kind and send me copies of any and all ex parte communications, of any kind whatsoever, transacted by and between the Commission's representatives (staff and Commissioners individually), and the Petitioner's representatives. This request includes the Commissioners individually. The period June 2004 to the present is requested.
2. If you refuse this request, please cite the legal authority for doing so.
3. Please be advised for the record in this case, that I have NOT received any copies of Petitioner's pleadings filed in the referenced case, dating since July 2004 to the present September 21 , 2007. This is a violation of statutes and rules governing due process, etc.
4. Pursuant to the S.C. APA statutes the Commission has the duty of publishing a "Policy Manual". Please indicate if such a document exists and if I may have a copy mailed to me, or alternatively if it can be examined at a local public library.

Your early response to these requests would be greatly appreciated, since time is of the essence due to circumstances.

Sincerely,

Gary Weaver, Respondent Pro Se
